

Forest Education Foundation - supporting Cave Search 2014

A unique opportunity for a select group of Tasmanian students to spend a day exploring the Florentine Valley with Cave Search Expedition Leader, Andrew Hughes.

This event will be hosted by the teachers from the Forest Education Foundation and will include a variety of learning experiences.

Numbers limited to a total of 15 students and 3 teachers (represented by 3 schools).

Interested!

Contact the Forest Education Foundation:

info@forest-education.com

www.expeditionclass.com

Bookend Trust

Program outline:

When: Wednesday 3rd September

Where: Start (9.30am) and finish (4.30pm) at the National Forest Learning Centre, 79 Melville Street, Hobart

What to bring: plenty of food, hats, coats, etc - all the usual for a day out exploring the forest!

The Florentine as viewed from Tim Shea lookout - looking towards Mt Field West

FOREST
EDUCATION
FOUNDATION

National Forest
Learning Centre
The stories behind our trees

Visit our website: click here